

Marlene H. Dortch, Secretary

Federal Communications Commission

445 12th St. Sw

Washington, DC 20554

LightSquared should not be allowed to go forward until it is shown that their plan will not interfere with high-precision GPS.

As a professional Surveyor, my company uses high precision GPS for daily uses and any interference with this technology could have an adverse affect on my self and all my clients.

Ty R. Pell and Associates
Professional Surveyors
115 E. Main Street
West Union, Ohio 45693